CANADA'S UP-TO-DATE PHILATELIC MAGAZINE.

Official Organ of the Elgin Philatelic Association

ENTERED AT BERLIN POST OFFICE AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER, JUNE, 1899.

Philatelic Series Vol. II. No. 2. BERLIN, ONT, SEPT., 1900 Old Series Number 16.

CONTEMPORANEOUS PHILATELIC LITERATURE.

The Evergreen State Philatelist.

To issue seventy-two numbers of a philatelic monthly is more longevity than is generally meted out to philatelic papers. The Evergreen has certainly a fine record. When it first took its place among philatelic publications it was a very small paper and was ridiculed by many of the more pretentious stamp papers of that day. How many of these are now in existance?—very few. The Evergreen however, has seen far more prosperous days than it enjoys at present. Time was when it, along with the old Eastern Philatelist ranked at the very top of collectors' papers. Now the Eastern is merged with one of the more modern papers, the Philatelic Bulletin, and the Evergreen has grown thinner besides taking a yearly siesta during the summer months. When this latter policy was adopted it seemed to me that it was an omen of the Evergreen's decrepancy and I honestly expected the paper to cease publication shortly after. It has done nothing of the kind, if anything the paper this year shows more life than last year. One good feature of it is the monthly batch of notes on U. S. stamps, by Mr. E. R. Aldrich. The staid old Veritas is another good contributor. He has stood by the paper nobly and his writings under the heading "Philately Month by Month", are very interesting. Other contributors to the Evergreen this year are J. S. Dalton, L. V. Cass, Frank K. Hills and H. Moeller who is responsible for those breezy little bird whispers. I have missed this exchange during the summer and shall rush out and meet it at the door when it wakes up for the new season.

Publisher's Notes.

The slow season is over.

This paper until Jan. 1st for 5c.

The next issue will be a hummer.

Why don't you Russia around that subscription?

For October we intend to get out a big boom season special. An ad in it will reach 3000 readers.

Watch Energy grow! We intend to be "at the head of the class" among philatelic journals. We are making a special bid for new subscribers and want to add 500 names before Jan 1st. In order to do this we offer Energy without premium from now to Jan 1st, 1902, for 15c or with premium for 25c. List of premiums on another page.

New stamps of the values 1d, 6d and 1s are announced for Turks Islands.

Watch for a new issue from Italy.

The new Swiss stamps are already very plentiful.

Chili has issued new stamps as follows:—1c, green; 2c, carmine; 5c, blue; 10c, violet. They bear the effigy of Columbus.

Miss Maud Charlotte Bingham has favored us with several of the C. S. A. bills which she advertises in another column and has our thanks for them.

A recent ruling in the U. S. allows the use of U. S. Colonial stamps in the United States.

The Montreal Philatelist seems to enjoy scraps. At least they generally manage to be mixed up with some writer, just at present Chapman and Magill are the victims, and the latter appear to be getting the worst of it.

Mr N P Castle has disposed of his collection of unused European stamps for the handsome amount of $150,000 cash.

The De La Rue print of British and Colonial stamps from 1860 to 1863 were on unwatermarked paper.

In Waterloo, Iowa, in August, the Clipper to the Philatelic Inter-Ocean.

Milwaukee Musings.

By E. R. A.

While the various sessions of the D. P. A. Convention entailed much time, it must not be thought it was all work at the Cream City, for all work and no play would make the "Philatelic Jacks" as dull boys as the rest of the world so several enjoyable excursions were arranged by the entertainment committee. The first one on Tuesday afternoon was a trolley ride to Lake Park and the Soldier's Home. Two private cars were required to accommodate the party. Lake Park is a comparatively new park and not yet fully improved and extends for over two miles along the lake shore and contains 124 acres. The National Soldiers' Home lies about four miles from the city in the town of Wauwatosa and has elegant buildings and very finely laid out grounds. In the evening most of the "cranks" investigated the celebrated Schlitz Palm Garden, noted the country over as one of the "Beauty spots" of Milwaukee and blew foam from the top of steins to their hearts' content.

On Wednesday afternoon a visit to the Pabst Brewery was made and to the greater majority of the party the mysteries of brewing was a welcome and novel sight and at the conclusion of the tour of the many buildings, an abundance of foamy beverage was placed before the visitors. In the evening an excursion on the steamer "Bloomer Girl" was made to White Fish Bay, a summer resort about five miles north of the city, and an enjoyable evening passed listening to music, watching moving pictures and enjoying cooling lake breezes and—beverage.

Thursday afternoon many visited the Layton Art Gallery, while in the evening the men enjoyed a smoker at the Plankington where smoke, beer, reminences and stories reigned supreme until after midnight, when with cheers for the American Philatelic Association and Milwaukee the crowd broke up vowing to re-assemble in Buffalo during the Pan American Exposition.

The same evening the ladies were most enjoyably entertained by Mrs. Wm. F. Schad.

The Conventions.

The conventions of the American Philatelic Association and Philatelic Sons of America, passed off very successfully and were both well attended.

Both organizations have chosen Buffalo as the convention seat next year.

The newly elected officers of the American Philatelic Association are:—

President—G L Toppan.

Vice Presidents — P. M. Wolsieffer. C. E. Severn. S. Leland.

Secretary—H. E. Deats.

Treasurer—H. G. Smith.

Int. Secretary—E. Doeblin.

The new P. S. of A. directors are:

C. W. Kissinger	255 votes
L. T. Brodstone	216 votes
W. H. Barnum	184 votes
W. F. Schad	179 votes
C. C. Guy	178 votes

C. T. Reno who was a candidate for President is therefore only an "also ran". He polled 108 votes.
